any doubt where Tammany stands when a candidate is regularly nominated. We came here with the belief that Cleveland was the strongest man to nominate and the easiest man to elect. It was ascertained, after consultations, that in this conclusion we did not agree with the majority of the delegates. Now that the convention has spoken and paid the high honor to Judge Parker, Tammany Hall will go to work at once in New York county and roll up for him the largest planality ever given for him the largest plurality ever given to a presidential candidate of the De-

PRESIDENT SAYS NOTHING.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 9.—News of the nomination by the St. Louis con-vention of Judge Parker for the presi-dency was communicated to President Roosevelt at the breakfast table today by Secy. Loeb. The information was given to the president by telephone from the executive offices in the vil-lage to Sagamore Hill, but he made no The information was comment on either the nomination of Judge Parker or any other action of the convention. What he may have to say convention. What he may have to say concerning the Democratic platform and candidates probably will be said in his letter of acceptance of his own nomination by the Republican party. The president passed the day in his fibrary and about Sagamore Hill with members of his family. No official

visitors were received. JUDGE HARMON IN LEAD

FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

Convention Hall, July 9, 2:30 p. m .-There is some discussion with a view to an adjournment until 8 o'clock tonight. No decision, however, has yet

St. Louis, July 9.-The state leaders are still in conference at 2:30 p. m. endeavoring to agree upon a vice presidential candidate. At this writing Judge Harmon remains the one most seriously urged and the one most likely to be decided upon. In the meantime Senator Tillman is calling upon the Southern delegation to rally to support Senator Daniel of Virginia.

Convention was called to order at 2:47 p. m.

RECESS UNTIL 8 O'CLOCK TONICHT DECIDED UPON.

Convention Hall, 2:48 p. m. Leaders have decided upon recess until 8 o'clock.

LOUIS ETZEL CASE.

Chinese Soldiers Who Killed Him To be Punished.

Washington, July 9.—Minister Conger has cabled the state department that the Chinese government, after making a thorough investigation of the ircident, has ordered the punishment of the officer and soldiers who fired on and killed Louis Ettal, the newspaper and killed Louis Etzel, the newspaper correspondent. In addition it has undertaken to pay an indemnity of $25,000, Mexican, which sum will be turned over by the state department to the widow and mother of Etzel in Denver and to other members of the family, according to the decision of the dead man's administrator.

KANSAS FLOODS.

Waters Half Way Across State Are Falling.

Kansas City, Mo., July 9.—Flood waters at Armourdale, Argentine and lower Kansas City, Kansas, on the raging Kaw and west to Manhattan, half way across Kansas, have fallen steadily since late yesterday, and today continued to recede.

The railroads are recovery railroads are recovering and today every line west and south operat-ed some trains in and out of Kansas City, although with little regard to

AT WICHITA.

Wichita, Kansas, July 9.-The flood situation in Wichita today shows little change. The Little river receded slightly after midnight, but an early morning downpour caused the backwater to go to its eld mark.

AID FOR SUFFERERS.

Washington, July 9.—Acting upon a report from Gen. Bell, who investigat-ed the conditions at Kansas City, growing out of the flood, Acting Secretary of War Oliver has telegraphed Gen of War Oliver has telegraphed Gen. Bell to issue 1,000 tents and five days' rations for the relief of the flood sufferers. The supplies will be drawn from Leavenworth. This is an emergency measure and will be followed by further relief, if necessary.

MILITARY MANEUVERS AT AMERICAN LAKE.

Tacoma, Wash., July 9.-Gen. MacArthur will arrive at the encampment at American lake tomorrow. He has telegraphed Gen. Funston to that effect. He will be accompanied by Capt. Parker W. West and Capt. Frank L. Winn, ides-de-camp.

In the problem of attack and defense of outposts today Col. Lamping of the Second Washington regiment was in command to protect the approaches to Stellacoom. His command consisted of the Second Washington and a platoon of the Twenty-sixth battery, field ar-tillery. The attacking force, under com-mand of Capt. Daniel L. Tate, Third United States cavalry, including troop B of Washington and troop A, Oregon national guard, with a platoon of the Eighth battery. The maneuvers were under the eyes of 14 umpires. More troops from Idaho and eastern Washington arrived last night, and it is es-timated the force now in camp numbers

The band concerts of the Ninth cav-alry in front of Gen. Funston's headuarters are among the pleasant fea-tures of the camp.

The target competition at 800 and 1,000 yards, army 405, Washington 415, Oregon, 387. At 1,000 yards, army 298; Washington,

1; Oregon, 270. The scores at the close of the second day's shooting were: Washington, 2,406; army, 2,388; Ore-

Shot His Wife for a Burglar. Chicago, July 9 .- Charles Meliens of this city, mistaking his wife for a bur-glar, shot her, inflicting a fatal wound.

POSTMASTER FOR SARILDA, IDA.

(Special to the "News.") Washington, D. C., July 9.—Mrs. Jerusha M. Bowman has been appointed postmaster at Sarilda, Fremont county, Ida., vice D. S. Sadorus, resigned.

DIED.

els, Mrs. Theresa A. Werner, widow of August Werner, aged 63 years. The funeral will be held from the res-idence of her daughter, Mrs. Christina Merritt, 221 south Tenth East street, to-Sunday at 4 p. m. Friends

DEMOCRATS IN SESSION ALL NIGHT

(Continued from page 1.)

delegates, and the tramp around the hall continued, the marchers finally passing out from the delegates' seats in among those occupied by the visi

After the excntement had continued about 12 minutes there was a per-ceptible abatement and the band struck up "America," thousands of voices joining in the song. The lull speedily passed away, for the bands struck up "Dixle" and this was oil on a fire already fiercely blazing. With a spasready fiercely blazing. With a spas-modic yell, the applause started all over again. Rising and falling in a huge, overwhelming wave of sound, the outpouring of thousands of throats, it was kept up

PARKER! PARKER! During the band playing a huge bust picture of Parker was carried up the center aisle. Just as it reached the platform two young ladies of St. Louis, dressed in white and carrying mammoth boukuet of roses and ferns, were assisted to the presiding officer's table, and a huge portrait was held for a moment between them, face to the dele-gates, and the state banners which had gates, and the state banners which had formed the procession were held aloft and massed around it. Rythmic shouts of "Parker!" "Parker!" "Alton B. Parker!" were started and caught up.

At the end of 18 minutes the demonstration began to subside. The Parker portrait was then taken to the platform and turned toward the audience. There still hovered around the ence. There still hovered around the New York delegation many enthusias-tic shouters with their stands and banners. At the expiration of 22 minutes efforts were made to still the demonstration. A megaphone shout near the platform was begun for "Parker!" "Parker!" however, and things broke ose again. The demonstration lasted

Throughout the enthusiasm the Ne braska delegation, Bryan at its head sat, the members craning their heads to see what was going on, but with-out rising. When the demonstration was at its height Mr. Bryan sent a message to some one in the other part of the hall, and soon he was in consultation with several anti-Parker men.

Commanding the highest view of any one on the floor of the hall were five boys in the New York delegation, who were lifted on their fathers' shullders.

were lifted on their fathers' shoulders and from that height led the cheering of the delegation, keeping time with

HEARST'S PICTURE DISPLAYED. The Parker picture was carried from the platform and placed near New York's position in the hall. It was soon taken down, but just the instant it was lowered the California delegation dis-played a Hearst picture only for a played a Hearst picture only for a finstant, but it was long enough for his following among the delegates to catch sight of it and a ringing shout went up. It kindled again the dying demonstration for Parker. "We Won't Go Home Until Morning" played the band, and when the air was concluded quiet was once more restored.
"Arkansas," shouted the clerk, pro-

"Arkansas," shouted the clerk, pro-ceeded with the call of states at the chair's direction.

CARMACK SECONDS PARKER. "Aransas yields to Tennessee," answered the chairman of the delegation. Senator Carmack of that state was recognized and at once took the platform and began speaking seconding the nomination of Judge Parker. Senator Carmack had spoken but a few words when "Hurrah for Hearst" was hurled at him from the balcony, the remark at him from the balcony, the remark being greeted by cheers and some hisses. A few other calls of a like character were made by people in the galslerie but the great body of the convention disapproved with dignity.

Senator Carmack's voice did not fill the hall to the satisfaction of the galleries and he was interrupted repeatedly by cries of "Louder." It became apparent that much of the disturbance was caused by partisan enthusiasm in the galleries. A shouter who started a disturbance was escorted from the hall by an officer. But little of the senator's by an officer. But little of the senator's speech was heard because of his not strong voice and the noise that fol-

Carmack concluded his Senator senator Carmack concluded his speech at 10:15. The galleries seized the oportunity for a shout and disturbance reigned for some time while Chairman Clark pounded with his gavel for or#### der. "California," called the clerk, CALIFORNIA NAMES HEARST.

"Mr. Chairman," responded Delegate Tarpey, "California recognizes as her spokesman D. M. Delmas." "I recog-nize D. M. Delmas of California," said the chairman, and a volley of cheers came from the audience, Mr. Bryan came from the audience, Mr. Bryan leading it by standing up and waving a small American flag. Mr. Delmas, who took the platform to speak for Hearst, while not possessed of a voice of a strong carrying quality, could easily make himself heard by the majority of the people in the hall. Of greater age than Littleton, he is not unlike him in figure, possessing a unlike him in figure, possessing a strong, compact form, bordering some-what on the corpulent. He spoke calm-ly and enunciated clearly. His mention of the "Gentleman from Nebraska," called forth an enthusiastic tribute. DEMONSTRATION FOR HEARST.

Mr. Delmas' address, which closed with the name "William Randolph Hearst," was the signal for cheers which, while enthusiastic, were much less in volume than those that followed the mention of Parker's name. A sixfoot portrait of Hearst was taken to the platform, another of smaller size was raised in the gallery back of the platform and numerous smaller por-traits were shown on long poles raised from among the delegates. The pa-rade around the hall which had been carried on during the preceding demon-stration was quickly undertaken, California leading off with its great ban-ner of white and gold, Arizona, Ne-vada, Iowa, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming joining in the order named, some of them carrying pictures

100 Doses For One Dollar

Economy in medicine must be measured by two things-cost and effect. It cannot be measured by either alone. It is greatest in that medicine that does the most for the money-that radically and permanently cures at the least expense. That medicine is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood, cures pimples, eczema and all eruptions, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite and general debility.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it reliable and giving perfect satisfac tion. It takes away that tired feeling, gives energy and puts the blood in good condition. MISS EFFIR COLONNE, 1535 10th Street, N W. Washington, D C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to oure and keeps the promise.

The banner of the Illinois delegation was carried into the line, but the ma-jority of that delegation did not follow it. At first but few of them arose, and it. At first but few of them arose, and only a fraction of those followed their fiag in the march. The galleries joined lustily in the Hearst applause, making possibly a stronger demonstration than they had made for Parker. In marching around the hall many of the Hearst enthusiasts stopped to shake hands with Mr. Bryan, who remained standing during the early part of the demoning during the early part of the demon-stration. After a severe fit of coughing, however, Mr. Bryan took his seat.

Joseph Simmons of California, the largest man in the convention, slipped off coat and vest, and with his collar wilted and his short bosom sticky, mounted two chairs in the California delegation and waved a fleg to and fro, while a much leaner and somewhat taller delegate beside him tossed a small blue banner up and down to the accomer delegate beside him tossed a small blue banner up and down to the accompaniment of three cheers for Hearst, which were loyally echoed by the men of his state. The band, nothing if not impartial, played for Hearst "America" and followed it with "Dixie," as it had done for Parker, and the result was the same, with the exception that the Hearst people did not attempt to sing. A RED HEADED ENTHUSIAST.

A red-headed enthusiast in a gray suit was lifted up on the shoulders of several men to the left of the speaker's platform and cheered wildly for Hearst, but he was soon compelled to climb down, for his bright-colored hair was too conspicuous a target for the multi-tude of paper wads that came at him from all sides. Water was thrown on him, and in a few minutes he scram-bied desperately for release. When he reached the floor he remarked: "That water felt good," but he declined to give his name.

A second gentleman with red whis-A second gentleman with red whis-kers mounted a chair and attempted a speech. He, too, was pelted down and a policeman took him to the outer dark-ness. Meantime the demonstration for the editor-candidate went on, rising and falling in degree. The band played and the delegates, carrying Hearst pictures and flags and state standards, kept up their perspiring march through the aisles.

A picture of Mr. Hearst swung from A picture of Mr. Hearst swung from the gallery opposite the speaker's stand was the isgnal for a renewal of the cheers, and they waved to and fro in heavy volume as the picture was waved frantically by a fat man who held it. Again and again Hearst men marched around the hall, cheers greeting them at every stop.

Fully a dozen times the line completed the circuit and then the California banner was carried up to the speaker's platform and the other states massed their emblems at the foot of the steps, the men who bore the emblems cheerng and waving them with great en

A young woman wearing a gown of white, with a broad blue ribbon across her breast and a blue girdle about her waist, rose in section "O" and waved a small flag. She brought to her side 50 other people who joined in her tribute, and for a time she was the heart of the storm center. When she sat down the end hegan to come, 30 minutes after the first chearing hegan. The flag after the first cheering began. The flag of Illinois was the first to resume its place on the floor and the others fol-lowed gradually, while the chairman pounded for order.

BAILEY TAKES THE CHAIR. When half an hour had elapsed Sena tor Balley of Texas took the presiding officer's chair and began rapping for order. It was some time before the enthusiasm, which was now confined to the galleries and which was principally disorder, could be quieted. Many of the delegates and others began to hiss in disapproval, but this only served to spur on the Hearst rooters, and a battle of sound ensued

COLORADO SECONDS PARKER. "The state of Colorado," called the clerk. The response was immediate and Thomas J. O'Donnell was introduced and began a speech seconding the nomination of Judge Parker. The quiet of exhaustion prevailed as Mr. O'Don-nell proceeded, and approval of his ut-terances was confined to handclapping. When Mr. O'Donnell referred in complimentary terms to the great leader of the past two campaigns there was a demonstration in which the name of

Mr. Bryan was heard above the uproar. testation of loyalty to the last Democratic platforms. He invited the prodigals who had been feeding or invited husks" back into the fold, for, he said, "we need all kinds of Democrats in this campaign." His mention of Parker's name was greeted with shouts and applause. "Colorado once more joins hands with New York," he concluded, "and the echo comes back, 'Parker, popular lights and victory."

rights and victory."

After the applause which followed
Mr. O'Donnell's conclusion, Connecticut Mr. O'Donnell's conclusion, Connecticut was called. Walter S. Cummings was recognized and took the platform to second the nomination of Parker.

DELAWARE NAMES GRAY. Many of the spectators began leaving the floor and galleries and the tramp of their feet was a new disturbance, Irving Handy of Delaware followed Mr. Irving Handy of Delaware followed Mr. Cummings and nominated George Gray. He began by saying: "Delaware offers to you her noblest, bravest and best," and a cheer went up, led by the Delaware delegation. Before Mr. Handy had closed the disorder became appropriate that the close services. so pronounced that the clerk announced that "the chair indulged the hope that the guests would permit the business to proceed unmolested." The speaker fin-ished amid brief cheering.

FLORIDA SECONDS HEARST. "Florida," called the clerk. John S. Beard of that state, who was stand-ing by the West Virginia reservation, asked for recognition, which the chair at first denied him, not knowing who was. After some explanation chair said: "The chair will recognize the gentleman from Florida when he is in his proper place." Mr. Beard bowed, took his place by the Florida sign and proceeded to second the nomnation of Hearst.

"Georgia," called the clerk.

GEORGIA SECONDS PARKER. "The chair recognizes Moses Wrigh of Georgia," said Senator Balley, and Wright took the stand to Parker. He spoke in clear, ringing tones, and held the attention of the convention closely. Another Parker shout greeted the speaker when he mentioned the name of the New York can-didate, and the crowd thought that this didate, and the crowd thought that this was th conclusion of his greech. He continued, however, and was promptly advised by the irreverant in the gallery "to cut it out." He failed to follow the advice, however, and was greeted by a chorus of cries intended to drown him out. He, however, finished his address in a few words more and got a round of applause.

At 12:30 Idaho was called, but made no response.

ILLINOIS SECONDS HEARST. "Illinois," shouted the clerk, and Clarence Darrow of that state was pre-sented and began a speech seconding the nomination of Hearst. He made this plain at the outset, and at the name of Hearst the galleries vented their enof Hearst the galleries vented their en-thusiasm. When he said, "It seems to be fated that the men who once scut-tled the Democratic ship shall once more be placed in power," there were cheers and hisses.

CHEERS FOR BRYAN. "The Democratcy of Jefferson; the Democracy of Bryan," was a phrase from Mr. Darrow which struck the convention. After the shout which for lowed a voice from the gallery behind the platform rang out, "Three cheers for Bryan!" The cheers were given with a will. Mr. Darrow's speech enlivened the wearying and he was frequently applauded. Mr. Darrow in closing and workmen denied trial by jury; from the overworked and underpaid, the eyes of the poor and oppressed are turned to us. They ask for a candidate who is their friend, for a man devoted to their cause. The hopes and aspirations of these tollers are centered on William Randolph Hearst. These millions believe in him, because for the first time in the history of America, they have found a man of wealth, of industry and power who has turned his back upon the tawdry praise of the world and pleaded their cause. They are for him.

They are for him because in his great journals, for the first time in the history of the world, the cause of the weak and depressed has found voice and tongue. If this convention would gain the votes of the common people of the United States, that great class of the United States, that great class without whom there never was a Democratic party, they must name a man who has fought the battles of the poor. With such a man the mighty hosts of workers from the fields and prairies, from the factories and mills, from the railways and the mines, those who produce what other men consume, who railways and the mines, those who produce what other men consume, who make things while exploiters are printing stocks and bonds, these men under the banner of true Democracy will bring us a victory that will be a victory indeed.

"It may be that the hour of reason and judgment has passed by: that this Democratic convention will be unmindful to the call of the humble and the weak, but time when the fever of commercialism shall have run its course, when humanity and justice shall once more control the minds of men, this great party will come back from the golden idols and the tempting flesh pots and once more battle for the rights of man." Mr. Darrow concluded at 12:18.

INDIANA INDORSES PARKER.
Indiana was called next and John W.

Indiana was called next and John W Kern said in part: "When our candidate takes possession of the White House March 4, how comforting and reassuring to the American people to have even a brief period of silence after the never-ending streams of talk poured from those precincts during the past three years, talk of war, talk of wild cats, talk of bear fights, of fencing, of boating, of athletic contests, of bables, after all the startling performances of the present executive, from ances of the present executive, from Panama diplomacy, from breakfast ta-ble chats with the colored man and brother, how blissful, Oh, how restful and reposeful will be the silence—at least the comparative silence which will

The candidate soon to be named by "The candidate soon to be named by this convention is able, honest, fearless, a friend of the people, a foe of lawless monopoly, an upholder of the constitution, a defender of the principles of Jefferson, a thoroughbred Democrat and a never-falling winner. His name is already upon your lips. You are only awaiting an opportunity to nominate him—Alton Brooks Parker of New York." York.'

ROW AMONG IOWANS. At 12:28 a. m. Mr. Kern concluded and the state of Iowa was called. A delegate sprang to his chair and declared a second to Mr. Hearst. But Sam S. Wright of Tipton, Io., mounted his chair and shouted: "On behalf of the unbought and unpurposable delays to unbought and unpurchasable delegates of Iowa." At this point a rush was made for Mr. Wright by some of his colleagues in the delegation. It became evident at once that trouble was on. Mr. Wright sprang forward on chairs to get out of the reach of antagonists. An Arkansas deleg antagonists. An Arkansas delegate across the aisle reached out his hand and motioned him in. The convention was thrown into an uproar. One of the Hearst Iowa delegates rushed forward to the platform. He was at once follower by Wright between two men. There was a whispered conference with Chairman Bailey and Wright secured recognition.

He thundered forth: "Gentlemen of the Convention: I am proud of the fact that the great party to which I belong ordinarily believes in free speech." This struck the convention and Mr. Wright was accorded attention. "On behalf of that section of Iowa which sends Democrats to Congress, on behalf of Iowa Democrats who did not receive their political education from 'Coin's Financial School,' I second the population of Judge Barker of New York York." Mr. Wright at once left the platform, amid great applause and confusion. He proceeded down the alse to fusion. He proceeded use, however, re-his seat. His colleagues, however, refused to allow him to take his seat. He was called many hard names and final ly had to be protected by an officer and was given a seat by the Georgia dele-gation. The incident was one of the liveliest of the session and for a monent promised to become sensational.

Chairman Weaver of the Iowa delegation loudly demanded a hearing, was not recognized. He asserted that his colleagues wished to remove Wright as the honorary vice-president of the convention from Iowa.

Then Chairman Bailey took a hand. Rapping his desk, he secured order and said: "In the confusion the chair was unable to recognize the gentleman who rose first. In order to correct the mistake, the chair takes great pleasure in recognizing Mr. Rhinehart of Iowa."
"The gentleman who has just left the platform," said Mr. Rhinehart, "cast spersions on the delegates from Iowa I desire to cast the aspersion back into his teeth." Mr. Rhinehart denied for himself and all others of the Iowa delegation that any money had been re-ceived by them to induce them to cast their votes for any candidate. Before Mr. Rhinehart had concluded the convention again showed signs of restlessless, but a yell greeted his last words There was soon a sequel to the Wright incident. The delegation held a meeting and voted to unseat Wright as the Iowa member of the committee to notify the presidential nominee. In the words of one of the delegates, the action was taken because of the "imputa-tions cast upon the delegation" by

KANSAS SECONDS HEARST.

Kansas was called and J. G. Johnson was recognized to second the Hearst nomination. Mr. Hearst said, in part: "We believe in the theoretical policy that the office should seek the man, but we also believe in the practical political proposition that the man should be out in plain sight when the office is looking for him: that he should take the people knowing what he stands for and what they can depend upon if they elect him. And for this reason we defend the nomination of Mr. Hearst. OVERMEYER NOMINATES MILES.

As Mr. Johnson concluded the chair recognized David Overmeyer of Kan-sas, who placed Gen. Nelson A. Miles in nomination. Vigorous applause followed Mr. Overmeyer's mention of Gen. Miles, but when he continued his address, after naming his candidate. was frequently interrupted by the gal-leries, and the applause at the conclusion of his remarks was short-lived. In the midst of the handelapping the chairman's gavel fell sharply and ended

Delegate Rossing of Minnesota then interposed a motion that all seconding speeches be limited to one minute. Gov. Dockery moved to amend by making the time five minutes. Delegate Grady of New York spoke earnestly against limiting the time to one minute and moved to amend by making the time four minutes. After a little parliamen-tary squabble the time was fixed at four minutes.

Kansas produced a third speaker in J. W. Orr, who, in a few words not heard far from his seat, seconded the nomination of Parker.

Thomas H. Ball of Texas was next recognized to second the nomination of Parker. Louisiana seconded Parker.

CLARK PRESENTS COCKRELL. 'From the burning fields of the rav-ished Filipinos; from the bullpens of Champ Clark of that state took the Colorado; from the homes of jailed platform to place in nomination Sena-

WHAT IS "CREAM PHOSPHATE"?

It is the very purest and best quality phosphate. A special brand, especially manufactured for Hewlett Bros. Co., by the largest and most thoroughly equipped phosphate works in the world.

This pure phosphate is scientifically and accurately combined with the purest Cream Tartar, Bi-Carbonate of Soda and the finest Corn Starch (the latter article to prevent chemical action until the proper time) and when so combined they produce the purest, strongest and most healthful Baking Powder known—the Three Crown Brand—the "Best of the good

Three Crown Baking Powder does its work perfectly, and leaves behind no disagreeable effects. Where health, quality, and economy are considered, the Three Crown Brand of Baking Powder is invariably

Francis M. Cockrell of Missour for the presidency. It was after I o'clock when Mr. Clark began to speak His audience had sat for more than five hours in the sweltering heat of the packed hall and listened to speeches for the greater part prepared in ad-vance. They were growing tired. There had been little spontaneous oratory and few of the direct, vigorous hits that a convention crowd loves. But Mr. Clark was a stimulant. He had not spoken a hundred words before a ripple of ap-plause aroused attention ran through the hall. It was much like the scene a Chicago when Speaker Cannon spoke In five minutes he had won his audiand weariness was swept from

They responded to his every hit and cheered him to the echo. Mr. Clark's first mention of his candidate as "Old Cockrell" threw the convention into convuisions of laughter. The band played "Dixie" and the tribute grew into a demonstration. It was Missouri cheering Missouri's favorite son, and the whole convention joined in the com-pliment. The greatest part of the ap-plause came from the galleries, where the ladies of Missouri in numerous groups waved flags with great enthusi-

Bundles of flags were carried around to the galleries and thousands of them were moved into Missouri teritory, and in an instant two pictures of Senator Cockrell were ripped from their frames, while the gallery danced and shricked

In delight.

Above the band and the cheers, rising high and clear as a bugle call, suddenly came the shrill and plercing "rebel yell" and the long-drawn "Wah Hoo-Ce" at the plaintenance.

Oo" of the plains.

The Missouri delegation went on a short march around the hall, but the spectacle was somewhat more interestting than the beautiful sight offered by the many flags. The parade was soon abandoned. The tribute to Senator Cockrell, which was one of the hand-somest things of its kind seen in many conventions, lasted more than a quarconventions, lasted more than a quarter of an hour.

Kansas sought to make a counter demonstration by waving two pictures of Hearst, but the Missourians were not to be denied, and this time they "showed" things to the other side. When 20 minutes had gone a Missouri delegate carried the state emblem to the platform and waved it as high in the air as he could reach. This was the end of the demonstration, however, and quiet was restored. nuiet was restored.

Maryland seconded the nomination of Parker through Col. Benjamin Schley.

OLNY PRESENTED. OLNY PRESENTED.

"Massachusetts," called the clerk, and Patrick A. Collins of Boston made his way to the platform to nominate Richard Olny. The mention of Richard Olney called forth cheers led by Massachusetts. There was another loud cheer when the speaker declared that Mr. Olney needed no introduction to the world, and when he closed there were cheers and calls for Olney. After the Olney demonstration there was a call Olney demonstration there was a call for three cheers for Cockrell, and they were given with a will.

MINNESOTA SECONDS HEARST. When the name of Minnesota was called, the chairman of that delegation, called, the chairman of that delegation, on behalf of a portion of the delegation, seconded the nomination of Judge Parker. Another member of the delegation was then recognized, and on behalf of a majority of the delegation seconded the nomination of Mr. Hearst. Vardaman of Mississippi stood on his chair and in a brief speech seconded Parker's nomination. He was a conspicuous figure, with his long black hair and smoothly shaven face, and the convention applauded him.

MONTANA SECONDS PARKER. Montana was next called, and Senator Clark arose in his place and second-ed the nomination of Parker. Nebraska came next and the noise of the convention was hushed as the name fell from the clerk's lips. C. J. Smythe responded, but before he could speak the convention began a demonstration in which the name of Bryan was heard above the uproar. "Bryan! Bryan!"

Mr. Bryan finally arose, and, standing on his chair, endeavored to quiet the demonstration, but he was only an incentive for a fresh outburst. Mr. Bryan stood on his chair, and with a palm leaf fan motioned the delegates to take their seats. When he could make himself heard, he simply announced that Wisconsin had a candidate to present, and Nebraska yielded her place on the roll call to that state.

WALL NOMINATED.

David S. Rose, mayor of Milwaukee, was at once recognized, and took the platform to place Edward C. Wall in comination.

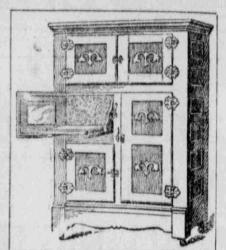

Mr. Rose took the New York delegation to task severely for presenting Judge Parker. "The nation has been calling on New York for months to tell us what are the views of their candidate," he rang out, "but he said noth-ing." Loud applause and cries from the galleries followed. Mr. Rose procceded with an arraignment of Parker candidacy in such strong terms that a point of order was raised by Oscar L. Miles, a Kansas delegate, who yelled amid the uproar, when Chairman Bailey asked him to state it: "The gentleman is not speaking in behalf of any candidate, but in general arraignment of the Democratic party." Cries of "Right, right" were heard the uproar.

Chairman Bailey overruled the point chairman Bailey overruled the point of order with the statement that it was not within the province of the chair to pass upon what a speaker should say. "I wish to say that I don't want to stir up a row," declared Mr. Rose, after he was allowed to resume. The sentence, was allowed to resume. The sentence however, was met with cries of derision.

A. J. Barr, a Pennsylvania delegate, interjected that the speaker had no right to resume along the same lines.

When Mr. Rose declared that he pre-When Mr. Rose declared that he presented things in a spirit of good fellowship he was interrupted with cries of Nebraska, this was Mr. Bryan's chance, Always Satisfactory-Ask Your Neighbor.

Ours is a Cool Store.

H. DINWOODEY FURNITURE CO.

MAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

We beg to advise our friends, and the trade in general, that we have changed the name of our corporation to

"SWEET CANDY COMPANY"

There will be no change in the management.

SALT LAKE CANDY CO., Leon Sweet, Manager.

President.

SWEET CANDY CO.,

LOUIS SARONI,

ARTHUR SWEET, Vice-President.

LEON SWEET.

Sec'y and Mgr.

derision. Mr. Rose grew rapidly un-popular and was interrupted with cries and stamping. But he persisted and finally, amid much confusion, named Edward C. Wall as Wisconsin's candi-Missouri, which had been passed in advertently on the roll call, was called, and ex-Senator Harris of Kansas made the response. He seconded the nomination of Cockrell in a brief speech deivered from the platform.

Many delegates began leaving

Many delegates began leaving the hall, pushing their way through the crowded seats and causing much con-fusion. The galleries also began to thin out. Then an alternate for all the out. Then an alternate far off to the left, evidently overcome by bracers, mounted his chair and, with uncertain gestures, demanded attention. A couple of policemen promptly hustled him out.

NEVADA SECONDS HEARST.

Nevada was called at the conclusion of Senator Harr's speech. A delegate arose and seconded from his place on the floor the nomination of Mr. Hearst. New Hampshire seconded the nom-ination of Judge Parker, as did also

New Jersey.
North Carolina gave a second to the Parker nomination JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS NAMED.

Chairman Cole of the North Dakota delegation took the platform and an-nounced that he had a name to present to the convention that had not yet been presented as a candidate. "Who is he?" demanded the convention. "I'll name him," retorted Mr. Cole, who proceeded with his speech. "The candidate which we wish to pre-sent to you," he continued, "seems to have only one objection, and that is that he comes from too far south." Mr. Cole branched into a political discussion and the audience amused itself by making loud guesses as to whom the nominee would be. Chairman Bailey tried to quiet the clamor, which brough Mr. Cole to a stop. "The chair begs the convention to hear the speaker, because the speaker declares he will not cause the speaker declares ne leaves the stand until he finishes." At last Mr. Cole got to the end, which was the declaration that his candidate was John Sharp Williams of Mississippi. A the name of the Democratic leader in the house.

Neither Ohio nor Oregon had a can-didate to indorse and Michael J. Ryan of Pennsylvania seconded the nomina-tion of Parker. By this time the audience was getting restless and was not trying to hide it. When Rhode Island was reached John J. Fitzgerald of that state seconded the nomination of Wil-liam Randolph Hearst. The audience cried "Time" on him before he got fair-ly started, but he stuck out his four minutes.

Senator Tillman of South Carolina mounted the platform when South Carolina was reached and was given an ion six or seven hours of the eight-hour session had been wasted, and then went on to pay sarcastic respects to Mayor Rose of Wilwaukee, who had made so many criticisms of Democrats in a speech of an hour before. He urged delegates to stand upon the platform that had been unanimously adopted, and said no success could be hoped for without it. Senator Tillman livened things up considerably. "We need every Demo-crat we have and a few Republicans be-sides," he said, "If we can take a re-port fresh from his sin, why can't we let an erring brother return." He closed with an appeal for harmony and an indorsement of Parker. As Senator Tillman passed the New York delegation on his way back to his seat, David B. Hill stepped out and shook hands with him warmly.

John Sharp Williams was recognized and asked that his name be withdrawn.

and urged the North Dakota delegation which had placed his name before the convention, to vote for Parker. Utah, when called, announced that it had changed places with Alaska and would speak when the territory was

Virginia came out for Parker through the voice of Senator Martin, and West Virginia for William R. Hearst, al-though another delegate from that state declared in faror of Parker.

BRYAN'S CHANCE.

He asked unanimous consent for the suspension of the time limit on second-ing speeches. It was granted him and he opened his address in a voice so hoarse as to be scarcely recognizable

His declaration that he had thought he might have finished his course, but nobody could deny that he had kept the faith, was greeted with cheers as "That's so." As he proceeded the great hall became stilled. It was as silent as a church, and the thousands who filed it hung on his every word. No such tribute had been paid any man of the who have spoken since the Democrati onvention was called to order last Wednesday morning.

After stating that twice he had borne the standard for the party, Mr. Bryan continued: "I came tonight to this Democratic convention to return the commission, and to say that you may dispute whether I have fought a good fight, you may dispute where I have finished my course, but you cannot de-ny that I have kept the faith. Today as a private citizen I am more interest-ed in the success of the Democratic ticket than I was when a candidate."

BRYAN IS LOYAL.

When he declared himself a loyal Democrat under all conditions the ap-plause came in great volume. He read that portion of the speech of Gov. Black of New York nominating Mr. Roosevel which declared that wars were liable to come at any time to any nation, and declared the principle underlying that declared the principle underlying that utterance was a challenge to the civilization of the world, declaring that Roosevelt, if he believed in war as an arbiter of disputes, was a dangerous man to elect. He continued: "I believe he ought to be defeated. I believe he can be defeated. I tried to defeat the Republican party as your candidate. I failed, you say, You say I didate. I failed, you say, You say did, but I received a million more than any Democrat ever received be Here Mr. Bryan paused, and, lifting his head, swept the hall with his gaze. "Why did I fail?" he asked, and reply ing to his own question, he said: "B cause there were some who had aff ated with the Democratic party thought my election dangerous to the country. They helped to elect my opponent."

for the man that endures in so many hearts, was manifest and contributed toward the great slience of respect with which they were received, and the spon-taneous applause accorded his telling sentences.

There were many in the country, he declared, men who had considered his election dangerous, but he had always believed, and hoped he would always believe, that a man's duty to his country was no higher than his duty to his party. The applause that greeted the declaration was quick and general.

DEMOCRACY AGAIN UNITED. He asked the delegates to consider hat if he falled in 1896 and 1900, that it was due more than anything else it those who had not been loyal to the party. He declared that the sixtee hours he had spent in the committee of resolutions had been the host spent of resolutions had been the best spent of any in his life, because by mutual co-cessions the wings of the Democracy had united again and stood once more

Charles Kent will sing the "Cam-rian War Song" at Saltair, Web, July 13th

CAMBRIAN DAY AT SALTAIR. Millie Williams, the phenomenal chesi singer, at Saltair, Wed., July 13th

REAL ESTATE MEN wanting deed contracts, agreements or other legi-blanks, will find the latest forms it the Deseret News Book store.

